

Nicole E. Stoik

Nicole.e.stoik@healthpartners.com

Education

- 2003- 2007 University of Iowa Roy J. & Lucille A. Carver College of Medicine
Iowa City, IA
M.D. May, 2007
- 1998-2002 Princeton University, Princeton, NJ
A.B. in Politics, magna cum laude
- 6/2000-8/2000 Harvard University Summer Program, Cambridge, MA
Coursework: Principles of Physics

Professional Experience

- 6/2007-present Emergency Medicine Resident
Regions/Healthpartners Institute
Saint Paul, MN
- 7/2002-6/2003 7th Grade Teacher, Bayamon, PR
The Baldwin School of Puerto Rico
Taught 4 classes in general science and 1 honors pre-algebra class at the Baldwin School, an international private school; attained fluency in Spanish

Volunteer & Extracurricular Activities

Regions/Healthpartners Residency:

- 2007, 2008 Twin Cities Marathon
Worked medical coverage as a member of the Cardiac Arrest Team
- 2008 Lifetime Fitness Triathlon
Worked medical coverage at the finish line
- 2007-present Saint Paul Fire EMS
Assistant Medical Director for SPF Station 4
- 2007-present Regions Emergency Medicine Book Club
Club member

University of Iowa Carver College of Medicine:

- 2003-present Intramural Athletics, *Participant
Competed in leagues for coed flag football, basketball and volleyball, women's indoor soccer, and a coed dodge ball tournament
- 2003-2004 Diversity Dialogue, *Participant
Participated in a weekly, round-table discussion group aimed at confronting, discussing and learning about various issues of prejudice, discrimination and differences in experience as a result of one's race, social status, gender, etc.
- 2004-2005 McCowen Community Council, *M2 Class Representative
Acted as community class representative at monthly meetings with the community council and faculty advisors
- 2004-2005 McCowen Community Council Activities Committee, *Member
Helped to organize and run various fundraising activities for the community council such as the holiday Adopt-a-family program, the DVIP's annual

- 2003-2005 bench press for charity event and the annual Doc Dash 5K charity run
DVIP's "Press out Domestic Violence" Fundraiser, Volunteer
 Helped to raise money for the event by contacting several departments at the UIHC and by securing prizes and other donations from businesses in the community; acted as a spotter and helped with registration and organization at the event
- 2004 Ronald McDonald House, Volunteer
 Cooked and served dinner to patients and their families living at the house
- 2004-2005 Principles of Infectious Disease Liaison Committee, Member Acted as class representative at monthly meetings with course director; elicited feedback from fellow students about the lecture and lab components of the course, giving suggestions on how to improve the curriculum; created and presented a semester summary to administrators, including both positive feedback and suggestions for improvement of the course
- 2005 Doc Dash Annual 5K Run, Volunteer/Participant
 Helped to set up and run the annual 5K run for charity; ran in the event
- 2004-present Emergency Medicine Interest Society, Member
 Attended monthly meetings and activities. ACEP member, 2006-present.
Annals of Emergency Medicine subscription.
- 2004, 2005 Aesculapian Frolics, Participant
 Sang and acted with my class for the annual Carver College of Medicine Aesculapian Frolics show.
- 2004-2005 Medical Spanish Class, Participant
 Attended the weekly class which focuses on proficiency in the Spanish language, specifically in the healthcare field
- 2004-2005 Medical Student Mentor Program, Mentor
 Served as a student mentor to an incoming first year medical student, offering advice, support and anything else needed to help that student with the first year of medical school
- 2003-2005 Noteservice, Transcriber
 Transcribed lectures for pre-clinical courses.

Princeton University:

- 1998-1999 Varsity Soccer, Team Member
- 2000-2002 Colonial Club, Club Officer
 Served as Intramural Chair for the Colonial Club, running the intramural athletic program for the club and serving as a representative for the club in the University wide board of intramural officers; participated in several intramural athletic events
- 2001-2002 Princeton Justice Project, Founder, Co-President
 Started the PJP, an organization devoted to the eradication of societal injustices such as minimum wage, racial profiling and the current system of criminal defense; served as the co-president, running monthly meetings, heading up various committees and tailoring the group's focus

Honors & Awards

- 2002 Awarded High Honors by the Politics Department
- 2003 Selected to Participate in the IMEI Program at University of Iowa

Research Experience

- 2001-2002 Senior Thesis: The Color of Justice, Princeton University
 Advisor: Professor J. Eric Oliver, Department of Politics

Professional Memberships

2003-present	AMA, Member
2003-present	AAFP, Member
2006-present	ACEP, Member

Certification/Licensure

7/2008	ATLS
7/2008	ACLS
7/2008	PALS
7/2006	NRP

Personal Interests & Pursuits

In my personal time, I enjoy snowboarding, rock climbing, bicycling, traveling, playing club soccer, reading, watching movies and spending time with friends and family.